

THE RETURN OF KING LILLIAN
by Suzie Plakson

DISCUSSION IDEAS

1. Author Suzie Plakson breaks the fourth wall with her narrative style in this novel. As the reader or listener, how did that affect your experience?
2. "After all, what is Time anyway? Just a silly old rumor, so they say." How did you feel about the book's non-linear structure and slow reveal of key facts?
3. Other than Lillian herself, who is your favorite character in the book?
4. Which chapter of the book did you most enjoy, and why?
5. What is the obstacle that Lillian overcomes during the course of her journey that has the most resonance for you?
6. Which of Lillian's personal attributes do you most admire?
7. What do you think of the concept of your Sorrow being something that you must absorb at a specific time, and that it can either "make you" or "break you"?
8. What's your relationship with Destiny? Do you have one?
9. How does the theme of Home in The Return of King Lillian speak to you?
